Preface

Government of India Publications, Periodicals and Gazettes are of immense importance to persons engaged in research in Universities, Trade and Industries. The publications provide basic data and official information relating to all fields of activities. The Department of publication under the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Government of India is engaged in publishing, securing advertisements for insertion in the Gazette of India. It publishes various notifications in the Gazette of India and Delhi Gazette. It is felt very essential to bring out a latest information pamphlet indicating therein brief Introduction History and Functions etc. of the Department. This pamphlet is very useful for the persons in all fields of life. I feel happy to witness the contribution of the committee consisting of Smt. Lucy Jyoti Beck, Asstt. Controller (Admn.), Shri Anil Kumar, Financial Officer and Superintendents for preparation and compilation of this pamphlet in addition to their assigned duties.

(G. P. Sarkar)
Controller of Publications

Introduction and History

Government of India Publications, basically the printed material in the form of the Gazettes, Acts, Reports and Books have their own utility and importance. The contents of the material generated & published by the Government after in depth studies, deliberations and putting untiring efforts for becoming more authentic, valuable and useful for readers, scholars, academicians, politicians, scientists, technologists, businessmen and to all other who are engaged in different sphere of activities. The object of display and sale of Government publications is to disseminate information on various national programs and policies etc. contained in the books to enable the common man to get benefited from such publications.

The Department of Publication established in 1st April, 1924 in Kolkata. In 1932 the branch was transferred to Delhi. The Publication Branch functioned as subordinate office of the erstwhile Chief controller of Printing and Stationery till the end of February 1973.In the year 1973 the Departments were trifurcated into three separate departments viz. Directorate of Printing, Government of India Stationery Office and Department of Publication. Thereafter, the Department of Publication came into existence as a fully fledged Department. Prior to Independence, its role was limited to Government Reports only. With the passage of time, its functions have increased and have become an important part of Government of India. This Department is authorized publisher for publishing, sale, stocking and distribution of various Government publications, periodicals and Gazette.

The Department of Publication, located at Civil Lines, Behind Delhi Vidhan Sabha Metro Station, Delhi-110054, is a subordinate office of Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Government of India. This Department is headed by the Controller of Publications with the help of Assistant Controller (Admn.), Assistant Controller (Business) & Financial Officer.
